Port of Guam focus today of All-Hazards Training Exercise

Port General Manager confident that Port objectives are being met

Piti, Guam, January 25, 2011: The Port Authority of Guam was the focus today of an All-Hazards training exercise that will continue throughout this week.

The week-long exercise is being hosted by the Guam Army National Guard and involves many federal and local agencies. The Government of Guam agencies taking part include the Port Authority of Guam, Guam Waterworks Authority, Guam Police Department, Guam Homeland Security and Office of Civil Defense. The exercise is being conducted in several different locations throughout the island.

"The Port's main objectives in this exercise are emergency evacuation, inter-agency coordination, communication and notification and I am confident that we are achieving those objectives," said Port General Manager Pedro A. Leon Guerrero Jr. "I want to thank all of the local and federal agencies that are taking part in this critical training exercise."
