Except as otherwise agreed to by the Parties, reasonable time extensions for the performance of Consultant's services will be granted only for excusable delays that arise from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Consultant, including, but not restricted to, acts of God, acts of the public enemy, acts of the Government of Guam or the Government of the United States in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, acts of another contractor in the performance of an agreement with the Government of Guam, fires, floods, typhoons, earthquakes, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, freight, or embargoes.

XXIII. Modifications including those Due to Public Welfare, Change in Law or Change in Marketing Conditions.

The Port shall have the unilateral power to modify the Agreement at any time subject to the written agreement of the Consultant. The Port shall have the power to make changes in the Agreement as a result of changes in law and to impose new rules and regulations on the Consultant under the Agreement relative to the scope and methods of providing services as shall from time-to-time be necessary and desirable for the public welfare. The Port shall give the Consultant notice of any proposed change and an opportunity to be heard concerning those matters. The scope and method of providing services as referenced herein shall be liberally construed to include, but is not limited to, the manner, procedures, operations and obligations, financial or otherwise, of the Consultant. In the event of any future change in federal or Guam laws, the Port materially alters the obligations of the Consultant, or the benefits to the Port, then the Agreement shall be amended consistent therewith. Should these amendments materially alter the obligations for the Consultant, then the Consultant or the Port shall be entitled to an adjustment in the rates and charges established under the Agreement. Consultant shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement rather than accept modified terms. Nothing contained in the Agreement shall require any party to perform any act or function contrary to law. The Port and the Consultant agree to enter into good faith negotiations regarding modifications to the Agreement, which may be required in order to implement changes in the interest of the public welfare or due to change in law. When such modifications are made to the Agreement, the Port and the Consultant shall negotiate in good faith, a reasonable and appropriate adjustment for any changes in services or other obligations required of the Consultant directly and demonstrably due to any modification in the Agreement under this clause.

Consultant agrees that Consultant and its aforementioned employees, officers, directors, agents, servants, and subcontractors are not and will not become an employee, officer or Board member of the Port at any time during the duration of this Agreement, and will otherwise comply with the provisions of the Guam Procurement Law regarding ethics in public contracting (Title 5 Guam Code Annotated, Chapter 5, Article 11, and its associated rules and regulations). Nothing in this Agreement or any action taken under this Agreement shall be deemed or construed in any manner or for any purpose to evidence or establish as between Consultant and the Port a relationship of partnership, agency, association, joint, venture or representative, nor does this Agreement authorize any party to undertake or bind any obligation or responsibility on behalf of the other party. In addition, there shall be no withholding of taxes by the Port for the Consultant.

B. Liability. The Consultant assumes responsibility for its personnel and subcontractors providing services hereunder and will make all deductions and payments for social security and withholding taxes and for contributions to employment compensation funds, or any other payments required by the governments of the U.S. and Guam, if required. Consultant is responsible for paying when due any and all income taxes, gross receipts taxes, or any other taxes or assessments incurred as a result of the services performed by the Consultant and Consultant's employees or agents under this Agreement or the compensation paid to Consultant for services performed under this Agreement. Furthermore, Consultant shall maintain at the Consultant's expense all necessary insurance for its employees including but not limited to Worker's Compensation, Errors and Omissions, and liability insurance for each employee as required under U.S. and Guam Law and the mandates of the underlying RFP to this Agreement. Consultant agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the Port, its officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, successors and assigns, for any and all claims, demands, costs, losses, fees, penalties, interest, or damages, including attorney's fees, which may be brought or asserted due to (i) any injury, death, or property damage arising from the negligence or other wrongful or tortuous acts of Consultant or Consultant's employees, officers, contractors, directors, agents, representatives, successors, or assigns, or (ii) Consultant's failure to comply with terms of this subparagraph B.

XXV. Disclosure.

B. All Work Products, including any and all intellectual property rights in said Work Product, arising out of the Agreement shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Port. The Consultant explicitly acknowledges that the Port possesses exclusive rights to the Work Product arising out of this Agreement. Consultant shall not use or permit others to use in any way or form the Work Product without the express written consent of the Port.

XXVII. Attachments, Exhibits, Schedules, and Entire Agreement.

The Agreement, including its Attachments, Exhibits and Schedules, constitute the entire Agreement and supersedes all prior written or oral understandings. No Agreement, oral or written, expressed or implied, has been made by any party hereto, except as expressly provided herein. All prior Agreements and negotiations are superseded hereby. This Agreement and any duly executed amendments hereto constitute the entire Agreement between the Parties hereto.
